

Villa Vittoria

Villa Vittoria

Nestled in the green hills between Florence, Prato and Pistoia, Villa Vittoria is a magnificent Renaissance Medici villa, rich in history, charm and timeless elegance.

Today, Villa Vittoria provides an exclusive setting for unforgettable events in an atmosphere of refined beauty and sophistication::

- Weddings
- Ceremonies
- Private parties
- Corporate events
- Photo shoots
- Film productions

Its interior spaces blend historic character with refined elegance, while the loggia and formal Italian garden — adorned with centuries-old cedars of Lebanon, majestic cypresses and an eighteenth-century panoramic terrace — create enchanting backdrops for every occasion.

History

The ancient and prestigious history of this residence dates back to the Middle Ages, when it was originally used as a watchtower. Over the centuries, the building gradually took on the character of a noble manor house, becoming the heart of rural life in the surrounding countryside.

Following the capture of Florence, the Medici family built this villa and its estate, transforming it into the centre of what would later become the vast royal hunting reserve known as the Barco Reale.

INDOOR SPACES
Elegant and prestigious interiors, ideal for refined receptions.

OUTDOOR SPACES
Expansive green grounds framed by hedges, cypresses, olive trees and centuries-old cedars create a charming setting for symbolic ceremonies and romantic moments.

An eighteenth-century panoramic terrace overlooking rolling hills covered with vineyards and olive groves provides the perfect setting for aperitifs, outdoor receptions and relaxing moments with breathtaking views.

The outdoor spaces are completed by the loggia and a beautiful swimming pool, ideal for open-air events.

Interiors of remarkable prestige and refinement, ideal for an elegant reception.

DEDICATED WEDDING PLANNER
Included in the service, our dedicated professional will coordinate every stage of the event, turning your wishes into reality.

Culinary Excellence

A sensory journey guided by our Executive Chef. Bespoke dishes are prepared in our in-house kitchen, where Tuscan tradition meets contemporary innovation.

Our philosophy is rooted in a respect for simplicity and seasonality, with a carefully curated selection of premium-quality ingredients.

Olive oil, honey and wine come from our own agricultural estate, together with fruit, vegetables and aromatic herbs from the local area. Every menu is tailored to the couple like a bespoke garment, and we are also able to accommodate guests' specific dietary requirements with vegetarian and vegan options, as well as dedicated solutions for intolerances and coeliac disease.

Upon request, the Villa's products may also become a gift for your guests: personalised wine, olive oil and honey, offered as an authentic keepsake of your special day.

Organic produce from the estate's own farm and the surrounding area is used to create dishes inspired by Tuscan tradition.

The Rooms

The rooms at Villa Vittoria are an invitation to unwind, designed to offer guests a stay defined by comfort, beauty and tranquillity. Each room is unique, tastefully furnished and carefully curated in every detail, achieving the perfect balance between classical elegance and modern comfort.

Spacious and filled with natural light, our rooms offer enchanting views in every season. Natural materials, warm tones and antique furnishings create an intimate and relaxing atmosphere, ideal for restoring body and mind after a day of celebration or discovery in the surrounding countryside.
